

Hint

Remember that multiplication can be expressed as the first number times as much as the second number.