

Hint

Remember that credit is money given to you up front (borrowed) that you pay back, usually with interest accrued as well. But, it is necessary to have credit established if you want to make more purchases for larger items (vehicles, house, etc).