Hint

Students will need to be creative in translating the equation into the verbal description. Students will need to remember the format of the equation ax + b = c.

a = a rate or something multiplied b = an addition or subtraction of a constant number c = the total