$\boldsymbol{\pi}$ or $\mathbf{p i}$ is the Greek letter used to represent the relationship between the circumference of a circle and it's diameter $\left(\pi=\frac{\text { Circumference }}{\text { diamter }}\right)$. Pi is often approximated as 3.14 or $\frac{22}{7}$.

